WILL MARCH ON SATURDAY

Chief Marshal Ruckle's Orders for the Republican Parade in This City.

Appointments of Republican Speakers-Democratic Methods of Intimidation and Corruption for Use Throughout the State.

A Federal Office-Holder Talking About Indiana Democrats Wading In Blood.

An Elequent Irish Orator to Speak at Masonic Hall To-Night-Phases of Betting that Indicate Ropublican Success-Notes.

The final parade of the local Republicans, to be held Saturday night, promises to be the most actable demonstration of the kind held in Indisnapolis for many years. It is expected that every Republican voter in Marion county will be in line. The merch will not be as long as on former occasions, and there will, therefore, be no excuse for men remaining out, because they cannot walk a mile or two. It is not the intention of the managers to make any great pyrotechnic display, but there will be various features to make the parade imposing. Maj. James R. Ross was appointed chief marshal for the evening, but, as he will have to be out of the city on business on that date Col. N. R. Ruckle will have charge of the procession.

The following is the order pertaining to the details of the procession:

GENERAL ORDER NO. 1. REPUBLICAN COUNTY CENTRAL) COMMITTEE ROOMS, INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 27, 1888. N. R. Ruckle, having been selected as chief marshal of the grand Republidan rally on Saturday night next, announces the following appointments of chiefs of

Mr. Finerty is a stirring speaker, as well as eloquent. His facts are brightened by anecdote and apt illustration.

Proof Furnished by the Veterans. Capt. J. J. Healy and counselor Wm. Vocke, of Chicago, who were here with the Chicago veterans when they made their recent call on General Harrison, came to this city, Saturday, bringing with them a copy of the Chicago Times of Feb. 26, 1887, in which the outrageous attack upon the Union Veteran organization was made, in connection with an indorsement of President Cleveland's vetoes of soldiers' pensions. In the reprint of this attack the date of it is given as March 2, 1887, which gave the proprietors the epportunity of denying that any such acticle appeared in the Times of that day, and when Captain Healy visited the Times office he found that the issue of the 26th had been removed from the office files, and no copy of that date could be obtained there. Fortunately he was able to procure a copy after considerable search in the Chicago City Library, and this copy he has with him, attested by an affidavit sufficient to establish its genuineness. A good many of the Democratic soldiers he ve declared that they never would vote another Dem-gentlemen that Captain Healy's visit here is The following are a few extracts from the attested copy of the Times Captain Healy has "Thank God! the claim-agents, the demarogues, the dead-beats, and pordioseros, and deserters, and coffee-coolers, and bounty-jumpers, composing our great standing army of volunteer mendicants, have been defeated!"

"The ex-soldier of the North, instead of thriving by dependence upon his own energy and industry, is in the almshouse, according to Mr. Warner, or, according to other claim-agent statesmen, will soon be there unless papa gov-venment grants him a pauper pension. Why is this! It is because paps government has indoctrinated him with the pestilent notion that it is becoming to a savior of his country to fulfill the character of a dependent upon its bounty, of a mendicant, of a loafer, of a pauper without character or self-respect, who has gained the blessed right to lay down and open his mouth for a teat to suck."

"The Times is, therefore, in agreement with its correspondent, who says: 'It will be a happy day for the Republic when the last beggar of the Grand Army humbug is securely planted.'" Captain Heals procured not only the paper in which the article appeared, but a type-writer copy of it, which is now in possession of the Inoisna Republican State central committee, and to that copy is appended the following affidavit:

STATE OF ILLINOIS, } SS. Otto Diehling, being first duly sworn, says on his oath, that he is now, and for fifteen years last past has been a deputy clerk in the Circuit Court of Cook county, Illinois; that he has read the above and foregoing article, purporting to be a copy of an editorial, and has compared the same word for word with the original thereof; that said original was published as an editorial in the regular daily issue of the Chicago Times newspaper on the 26th day of February, 1887, on the fourth page of said paper, and that the above and foregoing article is a true and perfect copy of said editorial as published. said editorial as published. Subscribed and sworn to before me by said Otto Diehling this, 26th day of October, A. D., 1888.

JOHN J. REALY,

Clerk Appellate Court First district of Illinois.

To All Whom It May Concern: This is to certify that Mr. Otto Diehling, now and for about fifteen years last past, a deputy cierk of the Circuit Court of Cook county, Illinois, is personally well known to all of us, and has been personally well known to each of us for several years last past, and that we cordially indorse him as a man of strict integrity and honor, and believe that any statement he may make as to facts within his knowledge is in every way credible and trustworthy.

RICHARD S. TUTHILL, Judge Circuit Court. We think him an honest man.

KIRK HARRIS,

A. L. WATTERMAN.

Discharged for Political Reasons. Robert Gray has been the engineer at the Female Reformatory for sixteen years. He has been faithful, attentive and a hard-worker, and has served without the assistance of a fireman. He has lost yery little time in the whole sixteen years. He was discharged last week for political reasons. "When Harrison was first nominated." said he, yesterday, "I put his picture in my window and said I would vote for him. He has always been a good friend of mine and my family. My father-in-law, John Kirkwood, came to Indianapolis thirty-three years ago, and got off at the depot and applied for work to some men who were standing upon the platform. One of them, a tanner, offered bim a dollar a day to go to work in his tannery, but Benjamin Harrison, who was then quite a young man and was present, said that was not enough, and he would try and get him a better job. He took my father-in-law to a railroad office and got him a good job at $1.50 a day on the railroad, and he was soon making better wages than that. I've heard him tell it a hundred times, and he said if he had not met Mr. Harrison when he did he don't know what would have become of him. I tell you he swore by Benjamin Harrison up to the time be died, and I intend to vote for him. The Democrats have been around me all summer to get me to vote for Cleveland and last week I was discharged to make room for a Democrat. I've been looking for it all along, and knew I would get it soon if I did not go over to Cleveland. I've done my work well, and only missed a few days in sixteen years, and then because of sickness; and the work has been hard; and now, when they have got the natural gas and the labor is somewhat easier, they have dropped me, and for nothing else than my politics. It's pretty hard but I'll have to stand it."

Drift of the Betting. The betting in Indianapolis, which has all along been in favor of General Harrison is running stronger than ever in his favor as election day approaches. During the last forty-eight hours it has been almost impossible to find anybody who would risk any money on either a Democratic national or State triumph. Walker & McDaniels have the following propositions posted, but there seems to be no disposition to take them: $1,000 that General Harrison will be elected, to be placed in two bets of $500 each if desired: $500 that General Harrison will carry Indiana; $500 that General Harrison will carry New York; $500 to $350 that General Harrison will carry Marion county. Numerous small amounts on General Harrison's election, and $100 that no one can name two Northern States that Cleveland will carry, are also posted. The only Democratio money up in the Walker pool-room is $500 that Matson will carry Indiana, and that will be taken this morning.

Several gentlemen of means, at the New Denison House, yesterday, proposed that a pool should be made up, each one to contribute such an amount as he might wish and share pro rata in the losses and winnings as the amounts of bets compared with the whole amount of the pool. The idea was well received, and several present signified their willingness to put in sums varying from $1,000 to $5,000. The amount of the pool will not be less that $25,000, and will be as much more as may be necessary to take any and all bete offered. The pool will offer to but even that Harrison will carry Indiana, and even that he will be elected. If the idea is carried out the money will be ready by Wednesday.

Democrats After the Next Legislature. The Shelbyville Republican prints the followlowing letter, copies of which, it says, are being addressed to Democrats throughout that county. Senator Voorhees's appeal to Democrats not to forget the importance of securing the Legislature should remind Republicans also of the same necessity. Republicans of Marion county, especially, who are asked to scratch the ticket and vote for Democrats for the Legislature, will see that by so doing they are following Senator Voorhees's advice. He says: "WASHINGTON, Oct. 11, 1888. "My Dear Sir-I desire to call your attention to the importance of electing the Democratic ticket this fall. Let me say that the issues are of vital importance and interest to the whole country. It is very important that the next Legislature shall be Democratic, inasmuch as the Senators elected this fall will vote for a United States Senator. The United States Senate is now a tie, and should Cleveland and Thurman be elected, which is an assured certainty, we can and will control congressional legislation the next four years, provided we maintain our present representation in the United States Senate. "Allow me to impress upon your mind the fact that the last General Assembly of the State of Indiana was uncomfortably close, and our United States Senator was elected only by the hardest work. It is likely that the next Legislature will be close and we cannot afford to lose any member of the State Senate. Let me urge you to guard well the legislative ticket and see that no Democrat scratches. I will consider it a personal favor to me if you will use your personal influence to secure the election of Hon. W. Scott Ray to the State Senate, as he will vote for United States Senator. Please see to it that all personal differences are laid aside and that the whole Democratic ticket is elected, and I shall remain your obedient servant and well wisher.

D. W. VOORHEES."

Keep Your Eye on Repeaters. R. B. Harrison reached the city, yesterday morning, from New York, as a messenger from the national Republican committee to his father. bearing important information obtained by the national committee as to the contemplated Democratic frauds and colonization schemes in Indiana. All information of this kind is being sent by messenger, as nothing of this character is intrusted to the mails. It is believed that the Democrats will depend principally upon the repeaters they have imported from other States. The arrangement is to have the repeating done mostly in counties where all of the inspectors are Democrats. "Trusted inspectors have been seen," said a man yesterday, who has made some investigations, "and have had the idea impressed upon them that they can receive a ballot over a challenge if they only pre-tend to know that the man who votes is a legal voter. The Republicans must have at the polls watchers who know every legal voter in the precinct, and the first time an inspector receives a vote, which is known to be I do not believe it would take many examples of that kind to alarm the inspectors all over this city, and I hope to see the plan carried out. It seems to me that Coy and Bernhamer ought to be a lesson to all inspectors, but from the arrangements that are now being made by the Democrats, it appears that a good many ocratic ticket if the sentiments contained in the | men have forgotten that the United States article could be established as the utterances of | Court is still in good working order. There may they can become a party to a fraud and escape the United States Court, but they will find themselves badly mistaken if they carry out the instructions they have received."

Col. Henry S. Wilcox, who was one of the fusion Cleveland electors in Iowa four years since, and who is the Republican congressional elector from the Des Moines district this year. was at the New Denison last night, fresh from a week's canvass of this State. He gave part of his political experience here and elsewhere in response to questions of a Journal reporter. "I was one of those," he said, "that followed the Greenback party during its ten years' journey in the wilderness and did what I could heip it. The third-party experiment has always proven a dead failure and probably always will. The spirit of martyrdom is not inherent in average human flesh. When I saw the result last election I quit, and have never regretted it. Most of the Greenbackers of Iowa have done likewise. The present position of the Democratic party has made it easy for them to go with the Republicans. The Democrats have simply indorsed Cleveland and invited all prepared to fellow him while all others can go elsewhere. Cleveland's war on the silver currency and the efforts of his hired hands to cancel the green backs, coupled with his microscopic search for flaws in public and private pension bills make him especially obnoxious to those who oppose a contraction of the currency and favor a liberal pension policy."

An Original Greenbacker's Visws,

"What is the result of your observation in this State?" "At all points I have visited Republican prospects are first-class. General Harrison seems to possess the elements necessary to harmonize all interests. His patriotism when patriots were needed and his personal character give him great strength. Every mother can tell her boy to emulate him and thereby attain the highest stature of American manhood. No Democrat will hardly take his son on his knee and advise him to imitate the private life of Mr. Cleveland. If the people of Indiana do not stand by Gen. Harrison it will be a long time before any party will again nominate a citizen of Indiana for President, If he carries Indiana he will be elected, for he will surely carry Connecticut and New York. The fact that Indiana stands by him will go far towards inducing future conventions of both parties to nominate Indianians. The interests of Indiana would certainly be as safe in Harrison's hands as in Cleveland's."

The Gruelle-Bodenmiller gang of campaign slanderers are threatening to disobey the order of court and continue the publication of the Labor Signal until after the election. A gedtlelished, but not under the name of Gruelle & Bodenmiller. It is understood, however, they will do the work, and it is intimated that they be asked to explain a difference between their first answer in the case and allegations recently made. On Oct. 19 the two defendants filed with acting Judge Ritter an answer to the complaint in the suit of James Egan against them, in which they made oath that they were the owners of the Labor Signal property. Now since a receiver has been appointed they show that on Oct. 17, four days before they filed their auswer, the paper had been purchased at sheriff's sale by Langstaff, an alleged trustee of the Central Labor Union. It is the plan of the Gruelle gang in the employ of the Democratic State central committee to come into court and claim possession of the property under the alleged sale.

Will Resort to Infamous Methods. Under the cover of vociferous professions of desire for a free ballot and a fair count in this State, the efforts of the Democratic State central committee, under Mr. Jewett's management, to defeat both goes on steadily. Reports from many sections of the State note the appearance of Democratic "heelers" from abroad who are lurking in slums and getting ready to exercise their functions as "repeaters" and "bulldozers" on Tuesday next. The instructions sent out by Mr. Jewett to his county henchmen not only note the urgency of the Democratic situation in Indiana, but hint boldly at the fact that desperate measures will be required to avoid a signal defeat. These circulars are accompanied with "stickers," crooked tickets and other devices to defeat the purpose of the honest voter who wants his will recorded as he would express it were he given the privilege of a viva voce vote. The Democratic managers have even gone to the trouble of preparing bogus Republican tickets, which, if voted, will be thrown out in the count. Not content with arranging to defeat the will of the people by trickery and corruption, the Democrats are arranging in some sections for attempts at intimidation, in the hope that they may be able to drive off nervous and apprehensive Republican voters. Reference has been made to attempts of this character here upon the colored voters of this city, which thus far has only had the effect of rousing the latter to a firmer resolution to preserve their rights. A suggestive letter was received yesterday by Chairman Huston, from a prominent and igfluential citizen of Kentucky, whom he vouches for as a man of known integrity. letter, in part, is as follows: PADUCAH, Ky., Oct. 26, 1888. Hon. J. N. Huston, Chairman Republican State Com-ear Sir-On last Saturday night. Oct. 20, at the city hall, the speakers were the Hon. M. C. Alford, chairman of the Democratic State committee of Kentucky, and O. J. Bronson, collector of internal revenue, appointed by President Cleveland. In his remarks Bronson said: Fellow Democrats—I have been through Indiana, and I want to say to you that the Democrats of Indiana are going to carry that State if they have to carry it in blood up to their knees." The writer concludes: "I thought you ought to know of this,' and states that ten or more members of the local Republican league were present at the meeting.

The Jewett-Matson Row. Later reports concerning the recent Jewett Matson row at the Democratic State central committee headquarters in this city seem to jus tify present precautions taken by the Democratie candidate for Governor of this State, to keep himself at a respectable distance from the thickheaded but belligerent chairman of the Demo cratic hosts. As first stated, the chairman's cause of offense to the head of the Democratic State ticket was a verbal castigation administered jointly to the latter and Senator Voorhees, for presuming to stick their noses into affairs under Mr. Jewett's control, and an explicit direction to both of them to go where heat is furnished without the intervention of a trust. Fuller advices from the seat of war are to the effect that Colonel Matson was even more vigor-ously mauled by the irate chairman than was at first stated, and that for presuming to interfere while the chairman was delivering a lect ure on morality to Mr. Voorhees, he was taken by the nape of the neck and used as a mop on the floor of the committee-rooms. If these statements are correct Colonel Matson should at once remove his quarters to a still greater distance than now intervenes between his apartments and those of Mr. Jewett, and Mr. Jewett should be censured for his failure to observe the Marquis of Queensberry rules, which command that a contestant shall "break away" when his opponent gets tangled up among the spittoons.

This Week's Local Meetings. The local Republican meetings this week are amply provided with good speakers and promised to be more than usually interesting. In addition to Congressman Finerty's meeting. Messrs. J. R. Perry and Warren R. King will speak to-night at the Republican meeting at No. 7 school-house, in Washington township.

To-morrow evening ex-Governor Pitkin, o Louisiana, whose excellent speeches here in past campaigns are remembered by most Republicans of this city, speaks at Tomlinson Hall, and on the same evening John B. Elam speaks at New Bethel; J. R. Perry and Col. G. W. Spahr at Reich-wein's Hall, in the Ninth ward, and T. B. Glover and C. E. Thornton, at Springvale band-house, on Clifford avenue, east of Woodruff Place. On Wednesday afternoon, Messrs. Thad Rollins and W. H. Leedy will address a Republican meeting at Oaklanda, in Lawrence township, beginning at 1 o'clock, and on the evening of that day Juhn S. Duncan speaks at the Massachusetts-avenue depot and Thad Rollins and J. R. Perry

Thursday Hon. M. C. Quinn, an Irish orator, is booked for a speech, time and place to be hereafter designated, and on the same evening W. T. Brown and A. F. Potts speak at Lawrence fair grounds, and John L. Griffiths and Dr. Levi Ritter at Acton. Friday evening Col. J. A. Bridgland and Hon. W. D. Foulke are announced for the Virginia-avenue Rink, and John L. Griffiths and Charles W. Smith for a meeting at the corner of Washington and State streets. Saturday is reserved for the Republican parade. and no local meetings are announced for that

The Situation in New York. William M. Murray, of Buffalo, N. Y., who was in the city yesterday, says that Erie county will give Harrison a majority of 3,000, and that New York State was sure to go for Harrison and protection. "Why, let me tell you," said he, "the present Democratic Mayor of the city of Buffalo, Jonathan Scoville, is out for Harrison, and is working for the success of the Republican national ticket with all his might. He is an ex-Congressman from the Erie district, and heretofore has been one of the most prominent Democrats in New York State.

"In Buffalo, Cleveland is very unpopular. He is not respected there, even by the leaders of his party. The workingmen are coming over to General Harrison and protection by the hundreds. His grand speeches have made for him thousands of votes all over the country. We do not recognize Cleveland as a citizen of Buffalo. He cannot vote there; in fact, he has been disfranchised. He owns no property there, and if the voters the country over knew as much about him as we do in Buffalo, I do not believe that he could carry a single Northern State. In the Buffalo factories the men are nearly all for Mr. Murray has been traveling through Michigan and said that the Republicans had not the least fears of losing the State. That Batavis. N. Y., Stampede.

The Sentinel lately printed an account of a Democratic meeting held in Batavia, N. Y which is said to have been presided over. by Henry C. Fisher, a life-long Republican, with fifteen Republican vice-presidents. Mr. George F. Ackert, of Terre Haute, wrote to a friend in Batavia about the matter, and received the following reply:

"Yours of the 23d instant, inclosing elipping from the Indianapolis Sentinel is received, and I am glad to have the opportunity of correcting the untrue state ments which it contains. The meeting referred to was widely advertised as an 'independent Republican' gathering, but it was presided over by Solomon Masse, Democratic candidate for county treasurer this year, and not by Henry B. Fisher. The 'fifteen Republiban vice-presidents' were all Democrats with the exception of Mr. Fisher. The latter is the only many warm in Garages county and voted for Clave. mugwump in Genesee county, and voted for Cleve-land in 1884. The stampede in this section of the State' is all the other way, and Indiana Republicans need have no cause for alarm upon reading quotations from the Buffalo Times to the contrary. "So far as my own county is concerned. I have no doubt whatever that Mr. Harrisonie plurality will exceed that received by Mr. Blaine in 1884.

Major Mitchell's Position.

An impression has gone abroad that James L. Mitchell, Democratic candidate for re-election as prosecuting attorney did all he could do to Coy and those connected with the tally-sheet forgeries indicted by the county grand jury. Major Mitchell turned that investigation over to his Democratic organ, and it is to satisfy these | be election inspectors in Indianapolis who think | mar said yesterday that the paper would be pub- | deputy, John Holtzman, who is as near the gang in association as any one can be, and Captain Ritter, the attorney for the Committee of One Hundred. The Major, it is said, was never in the jury-room during the examination of witnesses, nor does it appear that his services at any time in this matter were of such a character as to give him any consideration as one who was anxious for the prosecution of the gang. On the other hand, the statement has been made by one close to Coy that, at the beginning of this campaign, the Major said to one of the gang, in effect, that Coy and his friends were mistaken in regard to him, and he wanted their votes. It is also said that while the Major is trimming to suit the wishes of the law-and-order element, he is decidedly averse to having that fact known where liberal tendencies prevail. The saloon-keepers are advancing his interests.

How It Is Done in Kansas. Mr. N. A. Yeager, of Augusta, Kan., formerly postmaster, but lately relieved by the "reform" administration, incloses to the Journal a circular received by him, through mistake, asking for a "contribution" to the Democratic campaign fund. The circular is in type-writing. with national committee heading, but prepared solely for Kansas, and signed by S. T. Neeley and A. A. Harris. two prominent Kansas Democrats. The circular states that money is being raised all over the country, and alludes to the success which was met with at Fort Scott, where several hundred dollars were contributed. The salary of the Augusta postoffice is $1,200, and $75 is stated as the amount of the "contribution" desired. This shows the enormous size of the corruption fund that is being levied from the Democratic office-holders all over the conntry, the lion's share of which is being poured into Indiana, to corrupt the suffrage in this State.

General Hovey Confident.

General Hovey spent a quiet Sunday at the New Denison, yesterday, resting from his arduous canvass of the past week and getting ready for this week's appointments, which round up his campaign. Corporal Tanner, who has been with him at most of his recent appointments, was with him here, and both of them, considering the strain of constant speaking, and most of it in the open air, were in good condition. Gen. Hovey was in excellent spirits and spoke confidently of the result on the 6th prox. "I firmly believe," he said, "that the Republicans will carry Indiana by at least 10,000 majority, notwithstanding the misrepresentations of our opponents and their evident intention to colonize the State with repeaters."

Major Ward, of Dakots.

Major Ward, of Dakota, closed his canvass of the State on Saturday, at Muncie. The Major has made twenty speeches during his stay in Indiana, and has given eminent satisfaction, so much so that where he has spoken, the cry is for him to come back. And should he again have occasion to speak in this State, he will rereceive a hearty welcome.

He presents the outrages that have been perpetrated by a Democratic Congress in keeping Dakota from being admitted as a State in a clear and forcible manner, that has done us much good. Major Ward deserves well of the people of Dakota, and the time will no doubt come when the citizens of that Territory will duly appreciate his merits.

Sheriff King's Little Campaign. It is reported on very good authority that Isaac King, Democratic candidate for sheriff, is paying the rent on the building at No. 126 East Court street, and is keeping there several vagabonds with the understanding that they will vote the Democratic ticket. Three ragged and dirty men were sleeping in the building last night, and it was learned that arrangements had been made for three more to occupy the room some time this week. The Republican who polled the precinct states that Mr. King gave in six yotes for the building. One of the men said to a Republican the other day that King had rented the building for them until after election, with the understanding that they would stay here and vote for him.

Noon-Day Meetings. The noon meetings of the Republican business men will be resumed to-day at the county central committee rooms. Songs from a glee club and ten-minute speeches will be given in the course of the hour. Such meetings have been very effective in Eastern cities, and the first one held here, Saturday, was very successful.

Cen. Harrison's Callets. Gen. Harrison spent a quiet Sunday, going to church in the morning, and in the afternoon he received friendly calls from his neighbors. The only visitors from abroad were Gen. John L. Swift, of Boston, Mass., and Henry S. Wilcox, of Des Moines, Ia., who called on him in the evening and had a pleasant interview.

Politics and Politicians. The Columbia Club will meet to-night at the New Denison at 7:30 o'clock sharp, to join the Finerty escort.

No Republican should move from his precinct until after the election. He cannot now go from one precinct to another without losing his In M. S. Toon's family, of this city, there are eight voters, the father and seven sons, all of whom will cast their ballots for Harrison and Morton. All those who voted against Mr. Blaine in 1884, but propose to vote for General Harrison, are requested to meet at Pfafflin's Hall to-morrow evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

Gen. Paul Vandervort came in yesterday from a tour of the southern counties of this State and reports the Republican situation there The Wanamaker Club will meet at the courthouse to-night to complete arrangements for going to Peru, Tuesday. Those who expect to go and who will not be able to attend the meeting to-night are requested to hand their railroad fare to John W. Dudley to-day. Royal E. Purcell, editor of the Vincennes Sun and John Wilhelm, Mayor of that place, were here yesterday. They brought their grips with them and it is supposed they took back Knox county's share of the $140,000. Owing to a seri-ous split in the party, affairs are not altogether lovely with the Democracy at the "Old Post."

Advice to Motners. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produes natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhosa, whether arising from teething or other causes. "Your voice sounds as though you were talking through a worsted stocking," said a gentleman to a hoarse acquaintance the other day. "! know it but what can I do?" was the reply. A Word About Catarrh.

"It is the mucous membrane, that wonderful semi-fluidjenvelope surrounding the delicate tissues of the air and food passages, that Catarrh makes its stronghold. Once established, it eats into the very vitals, and renders life but a long-drawn breath of misery and disease, dulling the sense of hearing, trammeling the power of speech, destroying the faculty of smell, tainting the breath, and killing the refined pleasures of taste. Insidiously, by creeping on from a simple cold in the head, it assaults the membraneous lining and envelops the bones, eating through the delicate coats and causing inflammation, sloughing and death. Nothing short of total eradication will secure health to the patient, and all afleviatives are simply procrastinated sufferings, leading to a fatal termination. Sanford's Radical Cure, by Inhalation and by internal administration, has never failed. Even when the disease has made frightful inroads on delicate constitutions, hearing, smell and taste have been recovered and the disease thoroughly driven out."

Out of Sorts

Is a feeling peculiar to persons of dyspeptic tendency, or it may be caused by change of climate, season or life. The stomach is out of order, the bead aches or does not feel right, appetite is capricious, the nerves seem overworked, the mind is confused and irritable. This condition finds an excellent corrective in Hood's Sarsaprilla, which, by its regulating and toning powers, soon restores harmony to the system, and gives that strength of mind, nerves and body which makes one feel perfectly well. "I have used Hood's Sarsaparilla in my family for three years, and have taken it personally with great success. It has always built up my system, by giving me a good appetite, has cleared my skin, and has made me sleep. I have suffered from nervous prostration, and have been cured by nothing but Hood's Sarapparills and occasionally a few of Hood's Pills."
